Staffordshire Women's Aid's Survive Sexual Assault & Abuse Service offers a free, non-judgmental and confidential service for adults, children over the age of 4, and close family members/significant others who have been affected by sexual assault or abuse at any point during their lives across Staffordshire and we are looking to recruit a Children and Young People's Independent Sexual Violence Advisor (ChISVA) to join the team.

As part of Survive, you will deliver a high-quality ISVA (Independent Sexual Violence Advisor) service to children and young people who have experienced sexual violence, sexual abuse, or sexual coercion. This will help meet the needs of victims, providing accurate information on criminal justice processes, victims' rights under the Victim's Code of Practice and referring to other services as appropriate ensuring that survivors have access to a range of specialist support.

You will work closely with, but independently from, the Police, Victim Gateway, Sexual Assault Referral Centre (SARC), Crown Prosecution Service (CPS), Witness Care, Sexual Health and NHS services as well as other voluntary sector organisations.

A full driving licence and access to a vehicle are essential requirements of the post

To apply for this position, please visit our website Work for SWA - Staffordshire Women's Aid where you can download a Candidate Pack to find out more.

The large part of our services are run by women for women, and this role is therefore restricted to female applicants under the Equality Act 2010, Schedule 9, and Part 1, Section 7(2)e of the Sex Discrimination Act 1975 apply. The post is exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act.

Closing Date for applications is 9 am on Monday 18th November 2024

Interviews will be held on Thursday 21st November 2024
