Staffordshire Survive provides a free, non-judgmental and confidential service for adults, children over the age of 4, and close family members/significant others who have been affected by sexual assault or abuse at any point during their lives across Staffordshire and Stoke on Trent.

We are currently seeking a compassionate and organised individual to co-ordinate referrals and care between Staffordshire Survive, specialist support services and the NHS Ascend Sexual Abuse Recovery Service, ensuring survivors receive timely, holistic and joined-up care that meets their individual needs.

You will support survivors of sexual violence, many of whom experience complex mental health needs, to provide formalised peer support and practical assistance in order for them to regain control over their lives and their own unique recovery process. This role will play a key part in advocating for clients, promoting recovery, increasing referrals and reducing barriers to service access and engagement.

You will have experience and understanding of the traumatic effects and mental health impacts of sexual violence, sexual abuse, sexual exploitation and sexual coercion and experience of multi-agency working.

A full driving licence and access to a vehicle are essential requirements of the post.
